The Blairs.

Montgomery Blair's Virginia speech is printed here in full to-day. It contains the statement already widely commented on, that Frank Blair was offered the place of Vice President by Hoke, who had power to confer it at Chicago in 1868. Montgomery says the reason he did not then accept was that he did not like the association proposed, meaning Mr. Lincoln.

Secession of the Southern.

General Howard starts on a tour of general investigation into the situation of the freedmen in the States late in command. He will be gone a month. He desires to have thoroughly acquainted with all the interests of the State, especially their educational needs, so that in any case the best possible disposition is made of the time when the troops is finally closed.

Organization of the South.

Republicans here are well satisfied with Gen. Meade's order, organizing the Department of the South. The concentration of troops and the large of many persons now employed as various Freedmen's Bureau officials, will not affect their business. Gen. Meade will not be subject to the civil authorities, and officers cannot be removed by the civil authorities, and officers cannot be removed by the civil authorities, and officers cannot be removed by TUESDAY, AUGUST 4, 1868.

THE COMMERCIAL is the oldest daily paper in the State, and now ranks the fourth in point of circulation among the daily papers published in Pittsburgh. It is the only Pittsburgh paper that has the telegraph dispatches, gives full market reports, and all features of the day.

As proof of the ultimate value of the various reports of the Commercial, we will state that they are regularly copied by the New York Herald, Shipping List, Iron Age, and other papers of the character in that and other cities, and that leading British commercial papers and circulars constantly receive them with credit. There is within the knowledge of the Editor, hardly an Iron Factory, Oil Refinery, or leading manufactory of any kind that is not a subscriber to the Commercial, principally, because its reports are the only full and reliable guide of the Pittsburgh markets.

Don't wait another day, but organize your Grants and Colfax Club at once. Do the ball in motion. Delays are dangerous.

Do you look forward to victory in November next? Then you must organize at once and "move against the enemy's works."

Do you want to participate in the rejoicings of victory in November? Then help to achieve it. Work for Grant and Colfax now, and you will be entitled to shout for them then.

If you would do any effective service for Grant and Colfax, you must show yourself in the ranks. Join the Club in your district, and get your fellow-workmen to do likewise.

Stein, Hostetter, Tassey & Co., and other red-headed rebels, gum-shoe and secesh in the government by your consent? If you would keep them out, pronounce full union Grant and Colfax against Seymour and Blair.

When Hostetter, Tassey & Co., who have taken possession of the Democratic party, the funniest question is of no account whatever. Whether the agreement to pay the bonds in greenbacks or coin makes no difference with them. They are for paying them in neither. Repudiation is their solution of the financial problem.

"Union should be the greatest vigilance along the whole line," said Grant to Otis, when victory was about to perch upon our banners at Vicksburg. If we would conquer rebellion at the polls, in November next, we must join the Grant and Colfax forces, and do our share of picket duty.

The speech of Senator Hendricks, of Indiana, in our columns to-day, is a clear statement of the issues involved in the present canvass. Like everything from the distinguished statesman, it is eminently worthy of the truthful journal, and should be extensively circulated. We regret that every reader of the Commercial, who for has failed in reading, should take the paper to a Democrat and request him to read the speech.

To show to what extent have the worst species of Hostetter, Tassey & Co. damaged the Democrats in the loyal portions of the Union, that certain Tammany orators have taken steps to insure greater prudence on the part of their reckless orators in future. The Cincinnati Enquirer gives notice of this as follows:

> [illegible]

Our contemporary of the Chronicle has the following pertinent remarks on the foregoing:

> [illegible]

We, Now can has gone to Auburn. It is not impossible that while there he will indulge in a friendly talk with his neighbors and take a position in favor of Grant and Colfax. The New York Times intimates that he will do this, and remarks that his declaration in favor of Grant will tell upon tens of thousands of votes. It is a significant fact that not since the Tammany Convention has there been announced an influential accession to the Democratic party on the contrary, hundreds and thousands have been determined in their action in favor of Grant. But the Democrats hate this to say: Every rebel and rebel sympathizer in the land has been awakened to renewed energy, responsive to the instinctive fire of Vance, of North Carolina, that "in the election of Seymour and Blair will be won all the South fought for." The reasons which gave rise to the rebellion, not for the Democrats, not very politic remark, have determined thousands to range themselves under the banner of Grant, Honesty and Peace.

THE CAMPAIGN IN WEST VIRGINIA.

The intelligence from our neighboring State, West Virginia, is of the most gratifying character. The Union Republicans of the State are well organized, and notwithstanding the Democracy and "rebel conservatives," as they are called, are active, there seems to be no doubt of an increased Republican majority in the State in October and November. Hon. W. E. Stevenson, Republican candidate for Governor, has been addressing his fellow-citizens in various parts of the State during the month, and his appointments already are numerous and ordered to Wednesday, October 21, when he makes the closing speech of the gubernatorial campaign at Parkersburg. Mr. Stevenson has a very forcible and straightforward argumentative way of presenting a subject, and his manly and straightforward arguments have won many to the side of truth and justice. Mr. Stevenson is ably assisted in the canvass by Governor Boreman, Ex-Governor Pierpoint, Senator Wilkey, Hon. Bane, Pendleton, A. W. Campbell, Esq., and others. The Republican press of the State is also making a good fight. These journals keep before their readers the true issues, that it is not merely a political contest but a "struggle for the very existence of our Government." Their watchword is "Expansion."

THE NEW LEADERSHIP AND THE OLD PURPOSE.

Since the Tammany Convention the reactionary elements throughout the South have become operations. The speech for this West Baltimore stated in his Charleston speech with perfect distinctness. A league was entered into in Tammany between the Democratic and rebel leaders for a resort to violent and revolutionary measures for the overthrow of the reconstruction acts. The duty of the President elect, says Mr. Blair, supposing the aforesaid elect to be Mr. Seymour, will be to declare the laws void and summon the army to set them aside. From the ugly feature it is not difficult to conjecture what is the character of the scheme that has caused such an awakening throughout the South.

It is to be observed—and the fact should not be passed over lightly—that the statement of Hostetter, Tassey and others of the compact entered into in Tammany encourages no denial either from Democratic leaders or the Democratic press in the North. The revolutionary letters of Blair are everywhere accepted as the correct interpretation of the Democratic platform and purpose. "The platform of the Democratic party," says the conclusion Mr. Blair, "is square upon the letter of Gen. Jackson and close construction of the platform and —— supporting all the declarations of principles therein contained, and —— are we left in the dark as to the mode the reconstruction laws, which no convention has declared "usurpations, unconstitutional, null and void," are to be set aside. According to the Hostetter the South will proceed pretty much as in 1861. It is this. When Seymour comes in should the loyal State governments attempt to go a step further under the reconstruction law, they will be openly resisted. On this point the Hostetter says:

> [illegible]

Now is not this in the same strain of the Hostetter's immediately preceding the outbreaking of the rebellion—same to the course to be employed with reference to Lincoln's election? The spirit of rebellion all over the South is the same now as then. Hostetter was then. Whether the Democrats in the North are more or less in favor of supporting the South than they were then, we shall know better by the time the Presidential election comes.

RESTORING THE OLD ORDER OF THINGS.

We advise Nobody to vacate the crossroads and locate himself in Natchez, Mississippi, immediately. We vouchsafe this advice after due deliberation, the result of a faithful perusal of the Natchez Courier, a journal devoted to the abuse and destruction of the General Government in a general way, and more particularly to the nationalization of the all order of things in the ruling South. We are well aware of the peculiar advantages Mr. Nobody derives from a residence in Kentucky, where, in addition to a supreme disregard of the whisky tax, and the pleasant pastime of walloping his own or his neighbor's niggers, one can also indulge occasionally in the luxury of shooting a stray abolitionist, now that it is proposed to restore the old order of things. There are advantages which certainly deserve serious consideration, at the same time, if we can place any degree of confidence in the utterances of the journal alluded to. Natchez and the country surrounding it evidently offers inducements which Mr. Nobody will find it impossible to resist. Among other inducements we may mention the fact that at a grand ratification meeting held by the Natchez Democracy recently, an immense procession was formed for the express purpose of burying with much ceremony "Reunited Constitution," which ceremony was duly completed without any interference on Jeff Davis's part, or any unusual commotion more "a slight disturbance at the corner of Main and Canal streets, as the procession was moving to the bluff," in which a negro was half killed by the opposite of "reunited constitution," and at which a negro was half killed by the opposite of "reunited constitution," and at which a negro was half killed by the opposite of "reunited constitution," and at

COE'S

DYSPEPSIA

"CONSIDERABLE MERIT."

(From C. C. Thwing, M. D. New Philadelphia, O.)

NEW PHILADELPHIA, OHIO, Dec. 21, 1864.

MR. CLARK: I am acquainted with several persons who have used Coe's Dyspepsia Cure, and from their testimony I am convinced that the medicine possesses considerable merit. I should be glad to recommend it to my patients who may need such a medicine, and also be sure it is, when a medicine is, in my own practice; but our code of ethics, to which I freely subscribed, disallows me to use a medicine the ingredients of which I am unacquainted with. Most manufacturers of proprietary medicines do not hesitate to furnish their formulas to physicians, and if you are one of those, please send me some formula, and if in quite likely that it will lead to the sale of a few bottles, to say the least. I would suggest that it would be advisable to make deposit[illegible] the medicine in more places than you have in this State. There are many large, flourishing towns, where your medicine cannot yet be found, and where, I have no doubt, from what I know of the medicine, they would have a large sale. If you do send with to have your complete formula known, please state [illegible] composing it.

BALDWINSVILLE, JULY 14, 1868.

CLARK: Allow me to say that, although, as a general thing, I have a great poor opinion of patent medicines, still I am disposed to regard Coe' "Coe's Dyspepsia Remedy" as a valuable thing. From boyhood I have been troubled with the most terrible form of dyspepsia, and have tried in vain for relief from a thousand remedies, and, although I have swallowed almost every known specific for this disease, none has ever given me permanent benefit, save that of Coe's "Coe's Dyspepsia Cure." I have not yet taken quite a bottle, and since I have commenced its use I have not had even a repetition of the headache. This is two months since. Previous to that I scarcely had it at least once a week, sometimes twice.

In reply to your inquiry as to results in using the bottle of Coe's Dyspepsia Cure we purchased from you some time ago, we would say that we have used it in our families, and if you are one of those, please send me some formula, and in quite likely that it will lead to the sale of a few bottles, to say the least. I would suggest that it would be advisable to make deposit[illegible] the medicine in more places than you have in this State. There are many large, flourishing towns, where your medicine cannot yet be found, and where, I have no doubt, from what I know of the medicine, they would have a large sale. If you do send with to have your complete formula known, please state [illegible] composing it.

Yours, &c.,

JOHN F. MOULTON.

"INSTANT RELIEF."

(From J. W. Mel. M. D., Delaware, Ohio.)

MORRIS, CLARK & CO., Druggists:

In reply to your inquiry as to results in using the bottle of Coe's Dyspepsia Cure we purchased from you, we take the first opportunity to state that, for a long time, I am an old dyspeptic, and have tried in vain almost everything in the line of proprietary and home remedies, from physicians and books, and never found anything to equal Coe's Dyspepsia Cure. The first dose I took of the Cure, I felt almost instant relief, and went about my business in a happier frame than I was, and had it not been for my own interference in eating, I could whether the disease would ever have returned. I took cheerfully and conscientiously recommend it to every one who has suffered from the ravages and horrors of this terrible disease.

Yours, truly,

J. W. MEL, M. D.

"VERY MODEST."

(From H. M. T. Smith, Decatur, N. Y.)

DECATUR, N. Y., May 1, 1868.

Quite 1 million bottles of Coe's Dyspepsia Cure sold in this and the adjoining counties in this year—the sales of prominent citizens in this place—who have been greatly benefited, if not cured, by the use of your Dyspepsia Cure, but they will not allow the use of their names. And then the market needs, with a steadily increasing sale.

Yours, respectfully, H. M. T. SMITH.

"REPUTATION GAINING."

(From Rev. Allen Crowell, Pennsville, Pa.)

LEVERINGTON, Pa., May 2, 1867.

MR. JOSEPH FLEMING:

Sir—"Coe's Dyspepsia Cure" is gaining a reputation amongst our people. The medicine already sold is having the desired effect. A friend wishes me to get a bottle for him, for which I send you $1. Send me no address, as none is required.

Yours, &c., Rev. D. ALLEN CROWELL,

Brookville, Jefferson Co., Pa.

THE PEOPLES' NATIONAL BANK.

Removal--Description of the Building to Old Fashioned House Warming, etc.

In one of the Union line there have re-marked a change in the style and character of the bank buildings within the past few years as in Pittsburgh. Some now boast some of the finest bank edifices to be found in the West, and quite a number of these have been erected within the past few years, in the best style of architecture, and as spacious and safe as the circumstances of to-day demand. Prominent among our banking institutions is the "Peoples' National Bank," occupying a most eligible location, and possessing the entire confidence of the business community in its safety and stability. Having the house at their disposal, the directors entered upon the erection of a suitable home for the convenient transaction of their business and the safe keeping of their deposits and securities. With commendable enterprise and economy they determined to mould the structure with the needs, and make the building pleasing and attractive as well as safe and comfortable. Such is the result of their efforts. In point of convenience of access, public business, in highly commanding, and pleasant proximity and disposition of the rooms, it is hard to conceive how a better location could be secured. Fronting on Fifth street, with all the advantages of light and air that this implies, and with all the conveniences of entrance and exit that the rear of the building, the location is almost ideal. The front is constructed of brick, with stone trimmings, and is two stories high, with a basement. The first story is occupied by the banking rooms, and the second by offices. The front is very handsome, and presents a most pleasing appearance. The first story is divided into two rooms, the one on the left being the banking room, and that on the right the private office of the President. The banking room is a model of convenience and elegance. It is 40 feet deep by 25 feet wide, and is finished throughout in the most substantial manner. The counters are of solid walnut, and the railings are of iron, with walnut tops. The floor is of tessellated marble, and the walls are frescoed in a most tasteful manner. The ceiling is also frescoed, and is supported by two massive columns, which add much to the appearance of the room. The vault is in the rear of the banking room, and is a model of safety and convenience. It is built entirely of iron, and is fitted with all the modern improvements. The vault is 12 feet deep by 8 feet wide, and 7 feet high. The safes are of the most approved pattern, and are supplied with the latest improvements in time locks. The private office of the President is handsomely furnished, and is provided with a private entrance from the rear of the building. The directors' room is also in the rear, and is a model of convenience and comfort. It is 20 feet square, and is handsomely furnished. The basement is divided into a number of rooms, which are used for the transaction of business by the officers of the bank, for storage, and for the accommodation of the janitor. A splendid burglar and fire proof safe, built by Messrs. Herring & Co., of Philadelphia, occupies the centre of the basement. The building contains sixteen commodious and finely finished rooms, in splendid condition. The lots front twenty-four feet on Fifth street, and extend back one hundred and fifty feet to a thirty-foot alley, with a brick stable and carriage house in rear of lot. Rare chance for investment. Police Intelligence.

Before Mayor Richardson.

Mr. Evan Evans, of East Liberty, made information against Mr. Thomas Kelly, of the same place, for assaulting his wife and other profanities. Bonds, it appears, were entered into between the parties in East Liberty, and Mr. Evans had served with his wife in East Liberty. Mr. Evans made the information before the Mayor, as he was afraid to go home. Bail required in the sum of $300 to keep the peace.

Before Alderman McMasters.

Mr. Thomas Gallagher, charged with committing assault and battery on the person of Mrs. McAnulty, was arraigned before Alderman McMasters, this morning. It seems that the case was waiting to be heard in the Police Court, but the parties, tired of the long delay, entered into bonds for their appearance at court. Mrs. McAnulty stated that Gallagher struck her on the side of the head, which was quite painful. She was also struck on the face and scratched badly. Both parties live on the same square, and have been at loggerheads for some time. Gallagher was fined $5 and costs. Single boxes, 25c.

Chronic Diseases of the Ear.

In observations and notes taken by Dr. Keyser, of this city, on the various diseases of the ear, he says that nine out of ten cases could be cured in their incipiency if application were made to some responsible and competent aural surgeon. The doctor quotes from the opinion of Wilde, a well known aural operator, who says: "I now not to reiterate the assertion which I made on several former occasions, that if the diseases of the ear were as well studied or understood by the generality of practitioners, and as early attended to as those of the eye, it would be found that they were just as much within the pale of scientific treatment.

* * * * *

Deafness is so common and so distressing an infirmity, and when of long standing so incurable, that we cannot too strongly urge all medical practitioners to make themselves familiar, with the treatment of the diseases of the ear. They should also encourage their patients to apply to them for relief of slight and incipient ailments in this organ, instead of allowing them to go on until they become permanently deaf, and then letting them fruitlessly seek relief from ignorant and empirical quacks."

The Doctor says that nearly all annoying disturbances, business and married growths peculiar to the organ of the hearing, some of which lingered through a score or two of years, can be cured or ameliorated by proper treatment. In many instances they can be traced to some other ill health in various parts of the body, very remote from the ear.

Dr. Keyser.

On our first page to-day will be found a very interesting article from Dr. Keyser, on pulmonary diseases, accompanied by testimonials from various parties who have been enabled, as it were, from the grave by his treatment. The Doctor, owing to the great demand for his services, relinquished the active management of his fine establishment on Wood street to his son, and has since devoted himself closely to the legitimate duties of his profession, in which he has acquired a reputation of which he has every reason to feel proud. The Doctor is one of the oldest in the profession we have in the city, and we speak from personal knowledge of the fact when we say there is not among the entire medical fraternity, a closer or more astute student. His quest for knowledge in his profession is such that his mind is ever at work perfecting those theories for the cure of diseases in the application of which he is so successful, and hence it is that in cases even where the patients have almost given up all hope, he almost always succeeds in affording permanent relief. In diseases of the lungs and scrofula arising from an impure state of the blood, he has a very large experience, and such of our readers as are afflicted in this way, would do well to read his communication.--Pittsburgh Dispatch.

A Word About Sewing Machines

The readers of the Commercial and other newspapers must have noticed a paid communication of a certain Sewing Machine Agent on this subject, who endeavors to show the difference in his own machine by misrepresenting other and better machines.

In his advertisement he makes the statement that the Singer Machine, one of the most popular machines for the last sixteen years, but they are now superseded by the Singer No. 2 Machine, last year were five hundred per cent. more and universally popular machine by manufacturing others. Their machines are always open to inspect on at their office, corner of Fifth avenue and Wood street, where Mr. A. Morton, the agents, are gentlemen long and favorably known among us, and they only ask that their machines may be carefully examined before any orders be purchased. They give a guarantee with each.

The Bilious Season.

Scarcely five per cent of the population of the country are more or less laboring under this disease. The symptoms are so universally known as to require no description. It is of the utmost importance, therefore, to check the tendency of the time to diseased action with that incomparable antibilious specific--HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Neglect the early symptoms, and the chances are that they will result in confirmed fever, liver and ague, or jaundice. It is presumed that nobody deliberately desires to have an attack from any one of these. But carelessness may be as disastrous as temerity. Do not procrastinate. An hostile is the greatest of earthly blessings. It should be every rational being's first duty to preserve it to the top of the tree. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS as a preventive now may escape the bilious epidemics and endemics which so generally prevail toward the close of the heated term and in the fall months. Is it not worth while to employ a means by which years of future health may be secured? The BITTERS are a NATIONAL REMEDY, every where procurable, and endorsed by the intelligent of every class. Read what leading members of the medical profession say of its merits as an antidote to malarious influences, in the pamphlets, authors, statesmen, men of science, artists, generals and distinguished soldiers, say about them. On the strength of these credentials we give them a trial. They will be found the very best and most reliable remedy that modern pharmacy has introduced.

FEMALE HEALTH! FEMALE HEALTH!

A great majority of the Females in this country suffer from derangements peculiar to the sex. FINANCE AND TRADE.

MONDAY EVENING, August 3, 1868.

Money continues comparatively easy at this point. There is no activity in trade to invite the use of capital. Our banks are eager takers of all good commercial paper, of which the market at present is very bare. In the Eastern cities are excessive accumulations. On railway and miscellaneous collaterals from 2 to 4 per cent is paid on call loans, according to the grade of the borrowing party; and on government it is difficult to find employment for money at 3 per cent.

--The following statement exhibits the business of the Pittsburgh Clearing House for the week ending Saturday, August 1st:

	Exchanges.	Balances.
June 27	$6,661,757 72	$236,731 03

Totals	$5,661,757 72	$436,731 03

--Gold is active and higher to-day. Its fluctuations were from 145¼ to 145¾. No specie went to Europe on Saturday, and the exports for the week were less than a million.

--There was a marked decline in the New York railway share market to-day, caused by a break in Erie. The shrinkage in the value of Erie, Pittsburgh, and in fact of all the stocks on the entire list was frightful and "unpleasant." Erie sold down to 65¾.

PRODUCE AND GENERAL MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, MONDAY, August 3, 1868.

Business yesterday was not materially different from the usual dullness of both buyers and sellers of the past few weeks. Country dealers are now in the midst of their harvest operations, and are not to be found in their respective localities. Consequently, outside of one or two articles of produce, there has been little done. Prospects for the coming fall trade are apparently good, and the jobbers of this city are supposed to be making their arrangements to meet it in their usual liberal manner.

The wheat harvest in the United States may be considered over, the crop secured, and, from a general survey of the whole field, taking into consideration the increased acreage and the generally favorable season, despite drouth and ripening of this great cereal, the yield will be found to be above that of the average. If there was hardly the quantity, there was hardly the quality and quality, that we have had in many years--certainly since 1861, though the present is the second year of short crops. The reports from the more extravagant estimates. The reports from the rye, oats and barley are scarcely less promising, while Indian corn has made wonderful strides for the backward season in the early part of the season. In the great wheat growing States, the Central, Western and Eastern States, the latest reports are uniformly favorable, and encourage the hope of a heavy crop.

That we shall have a very large surplus of wheat, there can be no doubt, and the only question is as to the amount which will be exported largely to price. The foreign position, financially, does not look to us, other than here for several years past realized good prices, while, as compared with other products of the soil, wheat is relatively cheaper than it has been for the last ten years. Hence they will naturally enough prefer to hold their grain rather than submit to what they deem very low prices.

We quote as follows, which are the current wholesale prices of grain, country dealers:

ASHES--Choice may be quoted at $7 50@$8 25 P barrel.

BUTTER--The receipts of choice are small, and the market is very firm at fully 30c P lb, the latter figure for choice.

BEANS--Those warranted as fresh and good sell at $2, and those unwarranted at $1 75@$2.

BEEF, LARD, &c.--Market moderately active, and unchanged. Sales of city pickled mess beef at $20 P barrel; do extra mess, $18@$19; sugar cured hams at 20c; dried beef 21@22c; lard 18c P lb, and mess pork $30 P barrel.

CHEESE--We quote extra No. 1 hard cheese at 16 @17c P lb; do No. 1 at 15@16c.

COFFEE--Market quiet and steady at 25c for fancy; 24c for Hamburg and Western Reserve; 23c for Rio, and 22c P lb for Java.

POTATOES--Sales of 40 P bushel for those grown on sod ground. Choice Ohio potatoes, of large growth, are quoted from store at $4 50 P barrel.

SEED--Market quiet and steady at 3c for flaxseed; $2 for Hamburg and Western Reserve; $2 50 for Timothy, and $2 75 P bushel.

TOBACCO--Sales of 40 P box for those grown on sod ground, and 50@60c for those grown on new ground. Choice Ohio potatoes, of large growth, are quoted from store at $4 50 P barrel.

VINEGAR--Not much offering and very little inquiry. Small lots from store at 30@32c P gallon.

HAY--New hay, from country wagons, sold at $20 P ton, and from depot at $22@$24.

DRIED FRUITS--There is little doing. No choice peaches in market, and they would command nominal prices, say 14@16c P lb. Apples are also scarce, and good could not be bought under 6@7c P lb.

CHAIN MEAL--Demand light at former prices, say $1 P bbl 0 P bush.

FLOUR--The market has been moderately active, and prices for good articles are firm, with an upward tendency. The receipts are light, and very little of the new crop of wheat as yet thrown upon the market. We continue to quote choice Minnesota brands at $10 @$10 75, good Wisconsin at --and $9 25 @10 50, and old winter wheat brands $9 75@$11 -- P bbl. The Pearl and other city mills are delivering flour, as to quality, wholesale, in barrels, $11, and in sacks $10 75 P bbl. Second quality, wholesale, in barrels, $9 50, and in sacks $9 25 P bbl.

GRAIN--We notice small lots of new wheat arriving by the Connellsville Railroad and by the Monongahela river boats. As yet there is no price settled on as to what will be paid when the crops commence to arrive freely. Dealers are offering for red wheat at $2 05@$2 10 P bush, but we hear of very few sales. The supply of new Southern wheat has been liberal, and on this account millers have kept down the price of flour. Offers for new rye were made at $1 10@$1 15 P bushel. No old rye offering. There is no change in corn and very little movement. Choice from first hands may be quoted at $1 07 and from Elevator and store at $1 05@$1 10 P bushel. Dealers are offering for new oats. No old arriving, and the few in store will scarcely fill a wagon. Small sales of barley at $1 20@$1 30 P bushel.

St. Louis Market.

ST. LOUIS, August 3.--Provisions active at full prices. Cotton--Nothing doing. Hemp dull at $10 @$10 for unbaled. Flour--Choice and fancy brands in demand and firmer; prices unchanged; low grades and medium are not wanted; receipts small; supply at all points light. Wheat--Receipts of red 1,000 bush; of white 1,000 bush; demand good for red, and prices 2@3c higher; white scarce and nominal; sales of red at $2 20@$2 24 for No. 2; $2 25@$2 30 for No. 1; $2 30@$2 35 for choice; $2 40@$2 45 for fancy. Corn--Receipts 1,000 bush; demand fair, and prices 1@2c higher; sales of white at 90@92c; yellow 92@93c; mixed 90@91c. Oats--Receipts 1,000 bush; demand fair, and prices 1@2c higher; sales of 1,000 bush at 70@72c. Rye--Receipts 1,000 bush; demand fair, and prices 1@2c higher; sales of 1,000 bush at $1 30@$1 32. Barley--Receipts 1,000 bush; demand fair, and prices 1@2c higher; sales of 1,000 bush at $1 40@$1 45. Whisky firmer at $2 25@$2 26. Lard quiet at 18½c. Bulk meats--Shoulders 13½c; clear sides 16½c. Bacon firm; shoulders 15½c; clear sides 17½@17¾c; clear ribbed sides 16½@16¾c; clear 16½@16¾c. Hams 21@22c.

STOCKS.

The heavy decline in Erie was the great feature in the stock market to-day. It was attributed to various rumors; the most probable of re seemed to be that the Erie Directors and the Northern railroad of New Jersey and Indiana to complete the Piermont branch, which virtually stops a rival road to the Hudson River, and that the rise of ice market was weak in sympathy with Erie.

The following boats, with their tows, expect to leave during the next twenty-four hours, when the river should fall too fast. There is, however, no telling what a day may bring forth:
